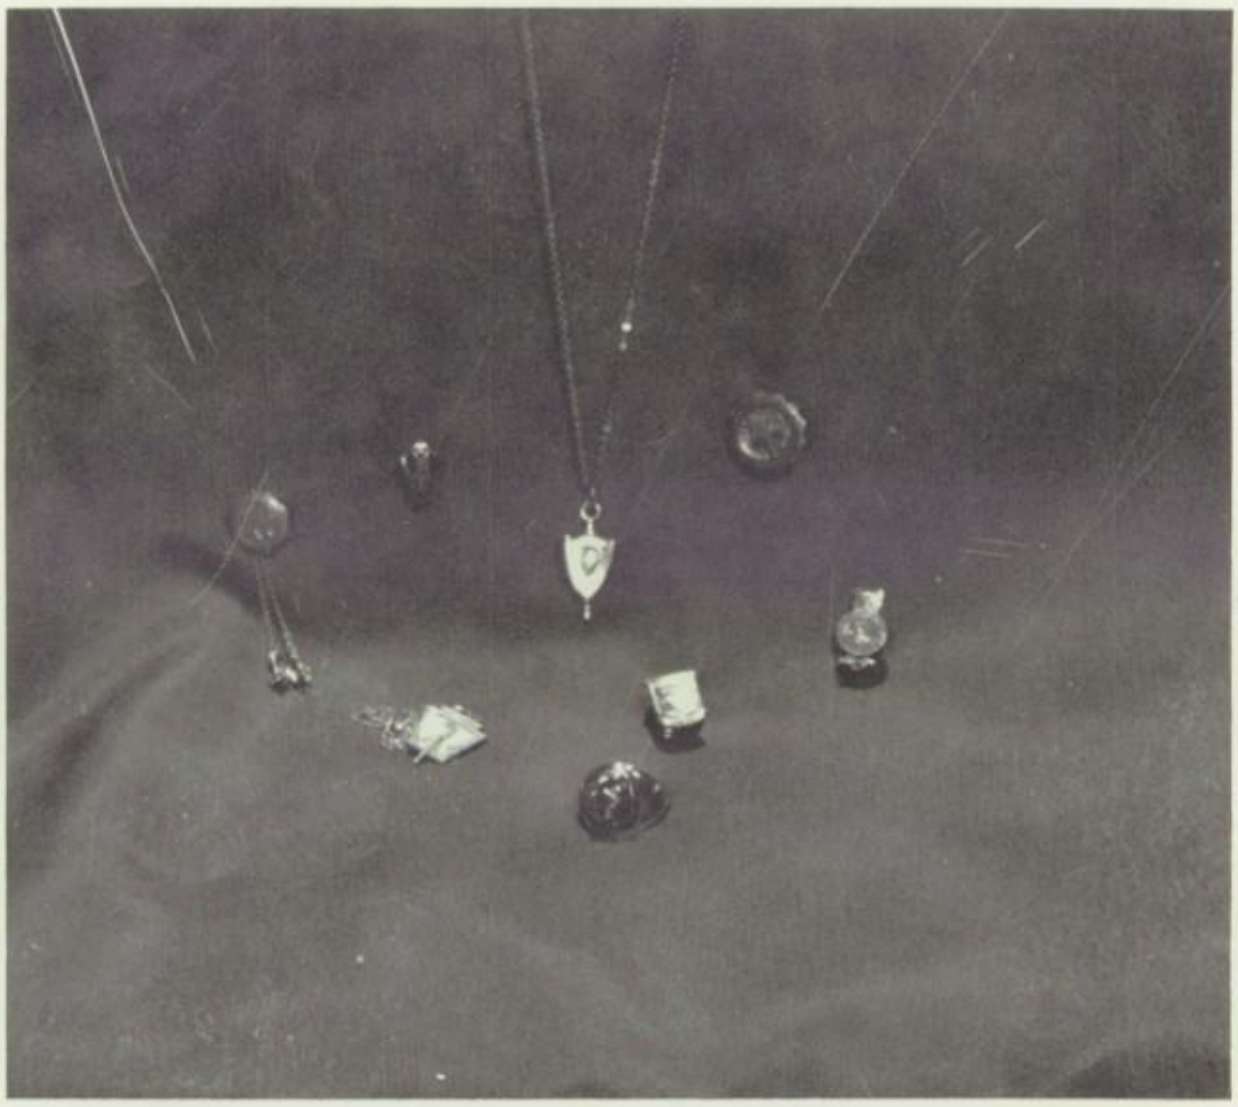
Rose Petal

67-68



We, the Senior Class of Glen Rose High School, have chosen Heritage as the theme for the 1967-68 Rose Petal.

This theme was selected because we have received a rich heritage of loyalty to our country, our school, our home, and our community from those who have gone before us. These are the sentiments which we shall cherish and keep throughout life.

We hope that we the Senior Class of 1967-68 have added to this heritage in some small way. We pass to you, "Students of Glen Rose High School," the responsibility of continuing this proud heritage. May you accept it as a challenge to make this responsibility a part of your goal in life.

Day By Day

MRS. BERNICE KELLY

Dedication

Throughout our life, we shall come in contact with many men and women, but none will ever mean more to us than this person does now.

Because of the principles in which she believes, her sincere interests in students, her loyalty to our school, her ability to stop in class to help a student better understand the material, and her determination to see her students finish the task that they set out to do, she has earned the respect of all the students and all the faculty of Glen Rose High School in the eight years she has been at Glen Rose.

To show her a small part of our appreciation, we, the Senior Class, dedicate the 1967-68 Rose Petal to you, Mrs. Bernice Kelly.

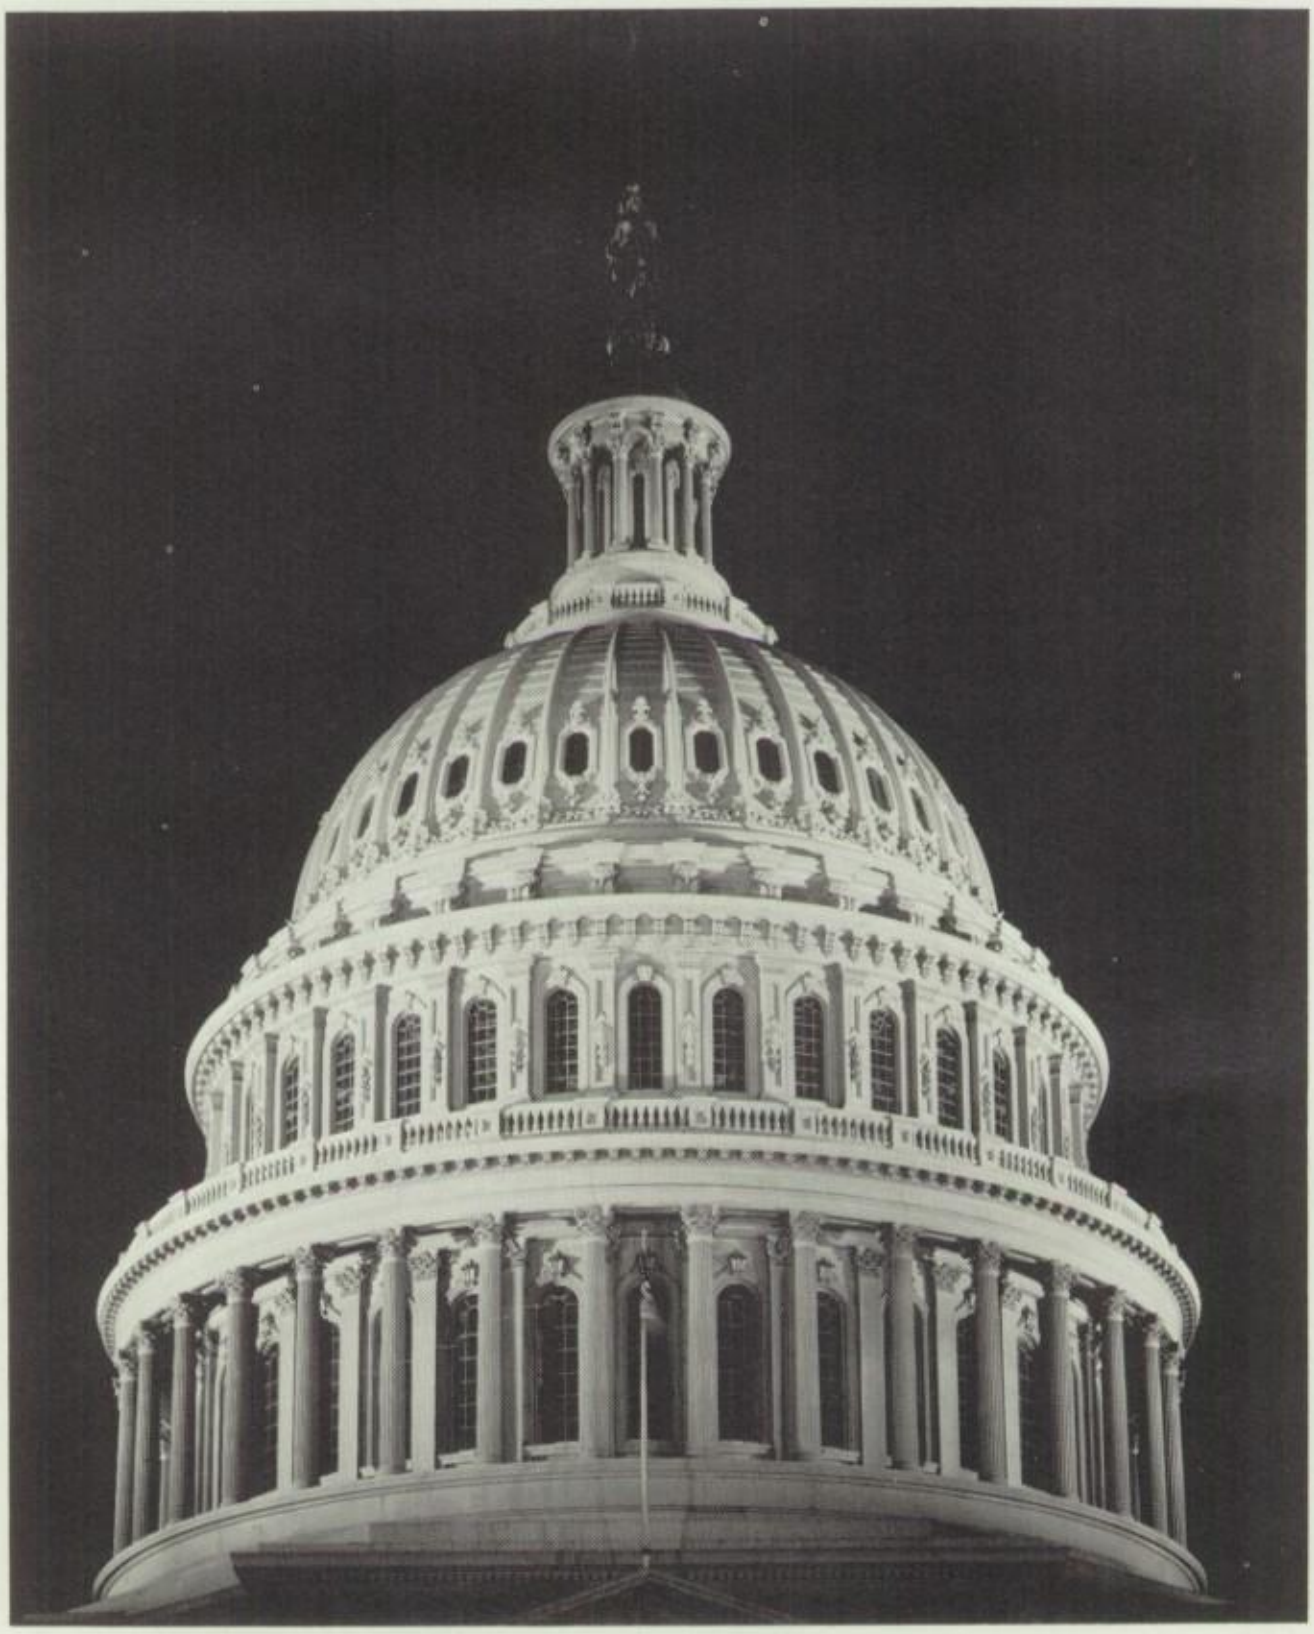
Mrs. Kelly always stands out in our hearts.

Mrs. Kelly enjoys teaching typing!

Mrs. Kelly decides a little coffee might shorten the day.

That's our Mrs. Kelly.....! Always taking time for a students in need!

No more Excedrin headaches! The last annual shipment is off.



ADMINISTRATION

To The Students:

The age in which we live is far from simple. Education is the key to success in the highly technological society in which we live. If you are to become a success in life, you must choose your goal wisely and work diligently toward the goal that you have set. Good things are never cheap, for those that are good we must strive. "There is no room at the bottom".

The administration and faculty at Glen Rose School hope and pray that they have been helpful to you in choosing a goal that will make it possible for you to acquire and enjoy the better things in life.

My congratulations and best wishes to you, the Senior Class of 1968, and to the annual staff who put this yearbook together. The memory of each of you will be with me for years to come.

Yours truly,
George W. Fite

To the Students:

I, on behalf of myself and my fellow teachers, wish to thank all the Glen Rose students for making this school year 1967-68 a successful and enjoyable one.

A special thanks should be extended to the annual staff and their sponsor. They have given so much of their time and effort in order to preserve all the treasured memories of this never again to be recaptured year. Their accomplishments and those of the student body they represent will stand as a lasting inspiration for those who will follow them.

Community

Brother Harper was the auctioneer at the Glen Rose Halloween Carnival.

The communities of Gifford, Traskwood, and Glen Rose are like spokes on a wheel; they unite at Glen Rose High School to form the hub of the wheel. Each community has given each of us students a rich heritage of which we are proud.

The Girl Scouts, Brownies, Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, baseball teams, and the P. T. A. 's have encouraged each of us to take part in our community.

We, the students of Gifford, Traskwood, and Glen Rose, express a humble "thank you" to all members of our communities who have helped us to become better citizens in our schools.

Award Winners Of

Sherry Phillips

Sherry Lynn Phillips was selected the Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizen for the year, 1967-68.

On the basis of dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism, the Senior Class submitted the names of Dottie Clift, Diann Burks, and Sherry Phillips to the faculty, who chose the one girl that they thought best met all of the requirements for the D. A. R. Good Citizen.

Sherry not only met all these requirements, but she will always be remembered for her hard work and untiring effort at Glen Rose. She has proved to be a capable leader and is a top ranking student. She is good-natured, well-rounded, all-American girl and holds the respect of everyone.

Sherry Phillips won the Betty Crocker Award for the School Homemaker of Tomorrow.

The 50-minute homemaking examination is designed to enhance the dignity and prestige of the American home, to stimulate interest in homemaking, and to emphasize the outstanding contributions to the home being made by high schools and high school teachers.

Sherry's examination paper was sent to Chicago to compete for the State and National Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow.

Glen Barr has been chosen by Mr. Howard Easterling as the Dekalb Award winner at Glen Rose High School. Mr. Easterling chose Glen as the Dekalb Award winner because he excelled in scholarship, leadership, and farm program activities during his four years in high school.

Glen, all the students at Glen Rose High School respect you for the diligence you have shown in agriculture.

Glen Rose High

Becky Ann Pevehouse was selected as the 1967-68 Crisco Award winner. Because she most successfully combines excellence in home economics with a broad range of accomplishments in other subjects and extracurricular activities, Becky was selected by the Glen Rose Faculty over seven other third year home economics students.

Becky, we are sure that your interests in home economics has been an inspiration to other students at Glen Rose High School.

ORGANIZATIONS

Emblems

The eight-sided emblem symbolizes the significant purposes of the organization. The name of the organization and the motto appear around the border. In the center is a house which represents a home where there is truth, love, security, and faith. This home is supported by two hands, suggesting that the future homes of America are in the hands of its youth. The hand on the right represents the husband, father, or brother in the home; the hand on the left represents the wife, mother, or sister. The rays extending to and from the home suggest the influence the home has on the community and the influence the community has on the home.

The F. F. A. emblem is composed of five symbols: the owl, the plow, and the rising sun, within the cross section of an ear of corn, which is surmounted by the American eagle. Upon the face of the emblem appear the words, "Vocational Agriculture," and the letters "F. F. A." The owl represents wisdom and knowledge; the plow is a symbol of labor and tillage of the soil; the rising sun is a symbol of progress, and the new day that will dawn when all farmers are trained and have learned to co-operate; the cross section of an ear of corn represents common agricultural interests because corn is native to America and is grown in every state; and the eagle is indicative of the national scope of the F. F. A. organization.

The Beta emblem is a letter "B" on an ebony background surrounded by a border of gold. Above the letter"B" appear three stars, which represent the spiritual side of human life in the specific traits of altruism, honesty, and courage. Loyalty to your country and the principles upon which it was founded is signified by an eagle with outspread wings, which appears below the letter "B". The background of ebony represents the dignity, restraint, and seriousness which should attend our search for knowledge and truth. The border of gold is for the gold of friendship and brotherhood.

The emblem of the National Honor Society is the keystone and flaming torch. The keystone bears at its base the letters C, S, L, and S, which stand for the four cardinal principles of the organization; these are character, service, leadership, and scholarship. As the keystone is placed by the builder to hold his arch in perfect stability, so the structure of our life education must be held firm and true to the purpose of life represented in this symbol. The flaming torch represents the searching light of truth, to lead that others may follow in the light of truth, to keep burning in our school the high ambition for the enduring values of life, and to serve our fellow men with honor and dilligence.

Coach And His Helpers

The Senior Class of 1967-68 salutes Coach Carroll Harrison. The encouragement he has given and the example he has set has made us try a little harder to be good citizens, diligent students and loyal Beavers.

His contribution in time and effort over the last three years has made a visible and lasting impression on us that will keep us striving always harder to attain the goal he has set for us--to be honest, trustworthy, responsible and healthy citizens.

The 1967-68 Beaver Homecoming was completely Hawaiian, including the music, the natives, and the scenery.

Miss Marla Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cephas Moore Jr., was chosen by the Senior Boys Basketball Team to reign as Homecoming Queen.

Although all of the students and all of the teachers worked to present the Beaver Homecoming to the community, special recognition is due to Charles Louder, who painted the scenery, Mrs. Carol Qualls, Mrs. Annette Lemons, and Mr. Carroll Harrison.

Dear Faye,

You're really the greatest friend I've got except for — Well, you know how it is. I'll never be able to thank you for your wonderful hospitality when I first moved here. It was like finding an oasis in the dessert. I'll never be able to express my gradidude to you for introducing Carroll & I. He was an experience I'll never forget. You really have a great family and I hope you realize this. Well, we've spent our last year in High School in friendship, I'm sure it will last forever. I'm going to miss you when I leave for the Rockfalls. I must wish you the best of luck & all the happiness of which you are so deserving. I'll never never forget you.

Dear Jay
Its been the world Knowing I going to school with you, these last 12 years. Ever since the 1st grade We've been struggling up together.
I wont to wish you all the luck in the future, and hope to see you get started with a good life.
Faye, you may not be able to read this but here is a graduate and a credit to any school. It's been nice having you in Oak Knoll this year Best wishes and good luck.
Jerry
Don't Forget Randy

Dear Faye,
I guess I've known you longer than most of the other kids around here. I'm glad your a friend instead of a foe, because like me you have a high temper at times. You are honesty a way out hippie-Best luck with Stan and all the other guys you go with before you settle down. I hope when I'm and are married, you can come visit me if we move to L.A.
R. M. A.
Friend

Dear Faye,
Its been fun going to school with you and I wish you Best of luck in the future.
